REGARDING THE CANAL AFFAIRS

Rainey Obtained His Information From New York World.

CHARGE MADE BY LOVERING

Massachusetts Man Declares That Illinois Congressman Got His Intelligence From the Metropolitan Paper, Which Information, Mr. Lovering Asserts, Was the Result of Investigations Made by Ex-Convicts.

Washington, Feb. 13.—That Representative Rainey of Illinois got from the New York World his information regarding the Panama canal affairs, which formed the subject of his recent speech and that ex-convicts investigated the stories of fraud and corruption pertaining to the acquirement of title by the United States to the property, was the charge made in the house of representatives by Mr. Lovering of Massachusetts.

"Maybe," he said, "the World did not originate all the scandalous stories it published, but its columns were public and we do know that the World did give credence and circulation to them."

Mr. Lovering declared that "the perpetrators of these false statements are known and the story of their doings reveals a chapter in the history of blackmailing that is rare in the annals of crime. These gentlemen," he said, "are known. Their names are known; their aliases are known; their haunts are known, and their plans are known."

"Does the gentleman object to stating who they are?" inquired Mr. Burleson of Texas.

Mr. Rainey Was Absent.

Mr. Lovering protested that he was laboring under great difficulty because of the absence of Mr. Rainey from the chamber. He admitted that he did not notify the Illinois member that he was to speak on this subject. "I want to say," he said, "that these men have been run down and brought to book, and it turns out that many of them are ex-convicts, and they stand a good chance of returning to the penitentiary."

He was pressed by Mr. Shackelford of Missouri for information as to who these convicts were, but Mr. Lovering would go no further than to state that before long they would be produced in court. Their names, he said, had been brought before the grand juries, both at Washington and New York, and at the proper time would become known to the general public.

Further referring to Mr. Rainey, Mr. Lovering said: "This gentleman has been made a victim or he is too willing to asperse such fair names as those of Charles P. Taft, Douglas Robinson, William Nelson Cromwell, Roger Farnham and several others." It was, he said, a "shameless prostitution" of the privilege of free speech which members enjoyed on the floor of the house.

Yielded the Floor Temporarily.

Upon the suggestion of Mr. Gaines of Tennessee that Mr. Rainey had been sent for and that the speech should proceed no further until he had arrived, Mr. Lovering yielded the floor temporarily.

After waiting a reasonable time and Mr. Rainey not having returned to the chamber, Mr. Lovering resumed his remarks. He had not proceeded far, when he was told that the Illinois member, who was scheduled for a speech in Baltimore, had been overtaken at the railroad station and was on his way to the house. Mr. Lovering again suspended his remarks.

In a short time Mr. Rainey entered the chamber and stated that his Baltimore engagement would prevent his remaining throughout Mr. Lovering's remarks, but that he later would make answer should he find it necessary.

Continuing, Mr. Lovering declared that the evidence was complete and sufficient "to convict the blackmailers who have tried to work their game not only on the gentlemen I have named, but on both political parties."

Tried to Sell to Democrats.

Last fall, he said, an effort was made to sell the stories to the Democratic campaign committee and that certain leaders of that party took the matter under consideration, but that they were not used because they could not be substantiated. He charged that for nearly two years prior to that time "these same men had been pursuing Cromwell with the expectation that he would pay them a large sum of money, varying from $5,000 to $25,000. They thought he would pay to have these stories suppressed." Mr. Lovering declared that those persons were always met by Mr. Cromwell with an indignant refusal "and the reply that they might do what they pleased with their stories, for they were nothing but lies."

Looking squarely at Mr. Rainey, Mr. Lovering called upon him "here and now" to produce his proofs.

Mr. Rainey promised that the first opportunity he would make a reply which would meet the challenge.

In closing Mr. Lovering said that if Mr. Rainey did not wish to produce the proofs, the fair and manly thing for him to do was to withdraw his charges "and above all, apologize to President Obaldia of Panama."

STATE OF PANIC IN BERLIN

Series of Attacks Made on Women and Girls.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—A series of six attacks upon women and girls has set the southeastern and eastern districts of Berlin in a state of panic. Three women were attacked Tuesday evening by a man who used a sharp instrument, believed to be a large awl, wounding on the lower portions of their bodies. One of his victims bled to death and the others were badly wounded. These attacks were followed on Wednesday by two similar assaults on girls, one of whom was severely and the other only slightly injured. Friday afternoon in the vicinity of Lichtenberg another girl was attacked in the same manner, but she ward off the weapon with her hand, which was severely cut. Her cries of alarm brought an excited crowd, members of which, suspecting that the criminal had taken refuge in a neighboring house, searched it from cellar to roof. Their efforts to find the man who did the stabbing, however, were unsuccessful.

A dozen men were arrested, charged with the crime, but all later were released on establishing alibis. Late Friday evening an armed youth about twenty years old was taken into custody in the neighborhood where the last assault occurred. Two of the victims of the stabber declared they recognized him as their assailant, and he was detained and will be confronted by the other women.

SIXTY-SEVEN ARE MISSING

Steamer Penguin Wrecked Off Cape Terawhiti.

TWENTY-SIX PERSONS SAVED

All the Others on Board the Vessel Are Believed to Have Perished. More Than a Score of Bodies Have Been Washed Ashore—Ship Struck on Rocks at Night During a Gale.

Wellington, N. Z., Feb. 13.—The Union Steamship company of Wellington's steamship Penguin was wrecked Friday night off Cape Terawhiti. Some of the passengers and a number of the members of the crew were saved, but the remainder of the ship's company, numbering sixty-seven, are missing and are supposed to have perished. The Penguin is a total loss.

The steamer Penguin was an iron vessel of 824 tons and was built at Glasgow in 1884.

It was at 10 o'clock at night and during a gale that the Penguin struck on the rocks of Terawhiti. The passengers and crew, numbering nearly 100, boarded rafts and two small boats. The other small boats had been smashed when the steamer was wrecked.

Twenty-six persons reached the shore and the remainder are believed to have drowned. The captain was the last person to leave the vessel. He got upon an upturned boat and was saved.

Twenty-six bodies already have washed ashore. One woman passenger lost her husband and four children.

UNKNOWN STEAMER SINKS

Seven Lives Lost in Wreck of British Vessel.

Brest, France, Feb. 13.—A British steamer, the name of which is unknown, during a fog ran on a rock off Quessant and then slid off and sank in deep water.

Seven persons were drowned, but the remainder of the crew took to the ship's small boats and later were picked up by a pilot boat.

RUN DOWN BY MOTOR CAR

Widow of General McCook Killed in New York.

New York, Feb. 13.—The police of Manhattan are bending every effort to ascertain the identity of a party of automobilists who are believed to have run down and killed Mrs. Edwin Stanton McCook, sixty-nine years old, of Chicago, widow of General Edwin S. McCook of the famous "Fighting McCook" family.

Mrs. McCook attended Lincoln memorial services at Sixty-eighth street and Central Park West in company with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles M. McCook of Chicago. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the two women separated, Mrs. Charles McCook returning to the home of Anson G. McCook, and the older woman starting for the home of a friend. What happened during the next half hour is a mystery which is engaging the attention of the detective force.

The known facts are that a few minutes after Mrs. Charles McCook reached the Anson G. McCook home, Mrs. Edwin McCook was brought to the house in an auto in which were an unidentified man and woman, Mrs. McCook had had several ribs fractured and was suffering from internal injuries.

The unknown man and woman remained in the auto while the chauffeur and the McCook butler carried the injured woman into the house.

The chauffeur announced that Mrs. McCook had been over "by a car" and that he had picked her up and brought her home. The injured woman revived for a few seconds and said:

"I was run over by a motor."

The chauffeur then scribbled on a scrap of paper a name and an address, which were afterwards discovered to be fictitious, and hurried away in the automobile.

"The Prussian Versailles."

It would be as unjust to form an estimate of the Hohenzollerns or of their capital without visiting Potsdam as to form an estimate of Germany without visiting Bavaria, for Potsdam is more than "The Prussian Versailles." It represents the complement of those sterner Hohenzollern qualities which are embodied in the city of blood and iron. Cold, colorless Berlin may well be seen on the gray days of standard Prussian weather. Sunlight seems exotic there. But the characteristic charm of Potsdam is revealed only when skies are bright and flowers are in bloom.—Robert Haven Schaffler in Century.

PANIC IN OPERA HOUSE AT FARGO

Quickly Stopped by Strains of Thrilling Music.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 13.—With the Fargo Opera House packed to the doors, the majority of the audience being school children and women, George Radley, engineer at the theater, dashed from the stage through the audience, calling for Chief Sutherland of the fire department. In an instant the audience was a veritable mob with everyone rushing for the exits. Cries of "fire, fire," was all that could be heard. But then cooler heads prevailed. The piano player was rushed to the instrument on the stage and "America" was played with a charm that thrilled the mob. A chorus of voices on the stage took up the tune and in a moment the audience joined and order was restored again.

Although a few were jostled and slightly bruised, none were injured to any extent, though several suffered from nervous shock. The address of President E. M. Vittum of Fargo college was resumed and the Lincoln centenary programme carried out.

CLOCK OBSERVED HOLIDAY

And Startled Oklahoma Legislators Into Doing Likewise.

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 13.—A remarkable incident startled the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature into adjournment after it had decided by vote Thursday to ignore observance of the Lincoln anniversary.

Pointing to the large electric clock on the wall of the house chamber, Representative Jones near the noon hour said:

"I wish to call the attention of the members to one of the strangest coincidences ever seen. That clock, after counting the time without interruption ever since this body has been in session, has stopped at the hour of 11 o'clock. One hundred years ago, Abraham Lincoln was born, as history runs, at the exact minute at which this clock was stopped. In stopping work this clock is showing far greater respect to Lincoln's memory than is this body. I move that we adjourn until tomorrow morning."

The house historians were agreed that Lincoln was born at 10 o'clock a. m. and that the difference in time between his birthplace and Guthrie was one hour.

TWO JURORS INCOMPETENT

Prosecution in Cooper Case Will Seek to Have Them Discharged.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 13.—Hardly had the jury been completed in the case against Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, Robin J. Cooper and John D. Sharp than the state served notice that it might seek to again deplete the box. After the twelfth juror had been accepted Attorney General McCann said he had information tending to show that two of the men now in the box were incompetent. The competency of the jurors will be tested today.

Prisoner Dies of Hydrophobia.

McAlester, Okla., Feb. 13.—James Bell, who was confined in the county jail on a charge of selling beer, died of acute hydrophobia. He was bitten on the lip by a hound three months ago. The malady developed Thursday.

INSURRECTION IN SENATE

La Follette of Wisconsin Will Be the Leader.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Following the lead of the house "insurgents," some of the new Republican senators, headed by Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, probably will make an earnest effort to obtain a reorganization of the present methods of appointing committees in the next congress.

When Senator La Follette succeeded Thursday in putting the naval appropriation bill over until next week he said that he "had the hardihood not only to doubt the perfection of the present arrangement, but almost to believe that if the business of considering the legislation of the senate could be distributed among the ninety-two instead of being taken in charge by less than one-third of the body it would be an improvement over existing conditions."

His present committee assignments, he said, do not allow him much say in the important business before committees.

CLOUDBURST IN CALIFORNIA

Buries Family Under Ruins of a Pavilion.

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 13.—Following a cloudburst in Rubio canyon, above Pasadena, a terrific flood of water came down the narrow canyon precipitating the Rubio canyon pavilion into the ravine and burying Fred T. Drew, agent of the Pacific Electric railroad, with his wife and four children, in the ruins.

An employee of the railway ran a mile and a half to Altadena and gave the alarm. Drew was rescued badly injured and the three children were also taken from the ruins.

At last reports Mrs. Drew and the other child were still in the ruins. The structure was the terminus of the Pacific electric line at the base of Mount Lowe incline.

Ski Tournament at Duluth.

Duluth, Feb. 13.—Ole Feiring of Duluth took first place in the interstate ski tournament held here. John Evenson of Duluth was second and Lars Haugen of Chippewa Falls third. Barney Riley of Colerane, national amateur champion, won first prize in the amateur class.

Costly Fire in Brooklyn.

New York, Feb. 13.—Fire in a building occupied by Potter & Young, coffee roasters on Van Buren street, Brooklyn, caused a loss of $150,000.

LIBERIAN SITUATION REACHES A CLIMAX

Conditions So Grave That Great Alarm Is Felt.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Cable advices received at the state department indicate that a climax has been reached in the Liberian situation. Conditions, according to the information at hand, are very grave and great alarm is felt by foreign officials in Liberian employ. A British gunboat has arrived to afford protection to foreign interests and a company of soldiers has been sent from Sierra Leone to the capital at Monrovia for the same purpose. Apparently great despondency is entertained as to the ability of the government to maintain itself and as to the future of Liberia as a nation.

The cables called renewed attention to the efforts of the state department inaugurated by Secretary Root to secure an appropriation of $20,000 to enable the president to send to Liberia a commission with a view to reporting recommendations as to the specific action this government should take which would constitute the most effective measures of relief. Secretary Root anticipated the development of conditions which would menace seriously the future of Liberia, which was established as a direct result of the action first of American citizens and secondly of the government of the United States. Consequently to this government Liberia has been an object of peculiar interest. Curiously enough it was President Lincoln who approved in 1862 a treaty with that country, whereby its recognition as an independent state was given and it was President Lincoln also who appointed the first diplomatic representative of the United States there. From time to time since then the United States has intervened in boundary disputes, making it clear that this government was most anxious to befriend Liberia and have it continue as a nation. Should a commission be authorized, the state department probably would utilize the services of a war vessel to take the members to Liberia.

MRS. CAT GOES TO ENGLAND

Will Assist in Preparations for Meeting of Woman Suffrage Alliance.

New York, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Woman Suffrage alliance, sailed today for England on the Atlantic transport steamer Minnetonka. Mrs. Catt is going abroad to assist in the preparations for the annual meeting of the alliance, which is to take place in London during the last week in April. After spending a week in London she will make a lecture tour in Bohemia, Hungary, Germany and Austria, returning to London a month before the meeting of the alliance.

Steel Pier Washed Away.

Redondo, Cal., Feb. 13.—The steel pier and 600 feet of approach of the Starr Wave Motor company disappeared in the waves during a storm. The pier went first and then the approach, until not even a scrap remained, except a small barge which went ashore. No one was on the pier at the time. The loss is $100,000.

Will Willis, a son of the late John Willis, left for St. Paul last night, called there by the serious illness of his youngest brother, Elmer Willis. The lad was operated upon for appendicitis
a day or two ago and is not expected to live. Mrs. S. W. Quinn went down on the early train this morning to assist in caring for the boy. The many friends of the Willis family in this city
hope that the lad may recover speedily.

The ladies of St. Francis Catholic church gave two very profitable charity matinee performances at the Unique theatre on Lincoln's birthday. Manager Koop kindly donated the use of the theatre and the moving pictures for the occasion and some of the best local talent assisted in the performances. The house played to capacity at both entertainments and over 800 persons were entertained. The result was a good sized sum for the benefit of charity.

Wm. Lemke, of Wadena, carpenter foreman for Leonard Schaf, the contractor on the Citizens' State bank building, left today for his home in Wadena, the carpenter work on the building being practically complete.
He may return next week for a day or so to look after some unfinished details.
The crew which have been putting down the tiling in the building completed the work yesterday and went to Duluth this morning to do a job there before returning to the twin cities.

The Brainerd dog catcher had an experience he does not wish to repeat says the chief of police. A party residing on South Fifth street stopped him Thursday evening so the officer reports and told him that he had a dog
he wanted killed but did not want it killed on the premises; he wanted the
officer to take the dog away and shoot
it. He had the dog tied with a piece of clothes line, which the officer untied
and then started off with the dog. After he had gone a little ways he felt something snap at his overcoat and
looking down saw that the dog was snapping at it and foaming at the mouth. Mr. Britton stepped quickly
back out of reach and shot the dog,
killing it instantly. He will look carefully hereafter at any dogs he is asked to kill and keep out of their reach if they act the least unnatural.

One of the pleasantest social events
of the season was the dancing party
given at Elks' hall Friday evening.
The hosts were Messrs. Alger Anderson, Clarence Brown, Harry Carlson,
Earl Entrikey, Jay Long, Harry Murphy, Raymond Rose and James Templeton, eight of the leading young gentlemen of the younger set of Brainerd society young people. The hall was very handsomely decorated, the party scheme
was a combination of Lincoln's birthday and St. Valentine's day, the main hall being decorated in the national colors. Red, white and blue streamers almost formed a canopy of the entire
ceiling, while the place was lighted
with tri-colored Chinese lanterns, making a very pretty effect. The parlor
was decorated in red hearts, symbolic
of St. Valentine, and the handsome frappe booth was decorated in the same way. The booth was presided over by Misses Evelyn Storm and Minnie Er-
win. Mesdames John Carlson, Chas.
Rose, W. E. Entrikey, Wm. Brown
and Thomas Templeton, mothers of five of the hosts, were the matrons of the occasion. Over 200 young people enjoyed themselves till the morning
hours dancing to the music of Ousdahl's
orchestra.

CUYUNA NEWS

The town of Cuyuna as laid out by
T. R. Foley is situated in nw 1/4 of Section 31, Township 47, Range 28
west. The adjoining forty is also laid out and will be an addition. Block No.
1 of the town lies in the northeast corner of town. There are eight blocks
in the plat. The streets running east
and west are named respectively:
North, Foley, Main, Kruse and South.
The avenues run north and south and are named Roosevelt, Minnesota and Chicago. The Cuyuna hotel is in the center of town, being lot 17, block 3
and situated on the corner of Main street and Minnesota avenue.

The Cuyuna hotel was opened to the public the middle of January and is meeting with great favor and increasing patronage. The proprietor, Howard Olts, is from Aitkin and may be called the pioneer business man of Cuyuna. The hotel furnishes excellent meals, prompt service and clean beds.
Everything is scrupulously neat and clean and the most fastidious traveling man or visitor will be suited. Mr.
Olts has a team and driver on hand so that travelers can easily make Brainerd, Deerwood or Aitkin. The second
grand opening will be a grand affair
and will occur when the plastering and inside painting are completed. This will eclipse anything previously attempted on the range and should be attended by every one who has an interest in the range.

A party of Aitkin people visited the
range and stopped at the Cuyuna hotel
Feb. 3d. They were T. R. Foley, capitalist; Frank Hense, banker; B. S.
Hollister, editor of the "Aitkin Age" veyors for Rogers-Brown Ore Co. were at the Cuyuna hotel last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pakenham, of Deer-wood, visited our town recently.

H. L. Searies, of Aitkin, has the contract painting the five company houses and the Cuyuna hotel.

John A. Hoffbauer completed his contract lathing five houses for the Rogers-Brown Ore Co. and some extra work in the hotel and returned to his home in Brainerd.

John F. Engman, of Deerwood, was at the Cuyuna hotel on Feb. 8.

Jesse Smith, Fred Arthur and Al.
Oakes are hauling logs to the shaft.

Gustav W. Friedrich has made arrangements to put in a meat market in the town.

T. R. Foley has commenced work on a store building that will be for sale or for rent.

The "Aitkin Age" of Feb. 9, has a good writeup of the town of Cuyuna.

Arrangements will be made to haul
the children of town to school at Deer-
wood until the Cuyuna school house
can be erected.

Albin Manninen, a miner of the western Massaba range, has been employed
as pipeman by the mining company.

Peter Larson is conducting a boarding house in the northeast end of town.
Several of the company teamsters and
carpenters are boarding there.

There are two drills of the Helmer
Exploration Co. working about a quarter of a mile from the townsite.

Mr. Richards, the master mechanic
at the mine, and family will soon remove to the Cuyuna hotel and stop
there until their home is ready for occupancy.

L. W. Thabes, of Brainerd, who has the plastering contract of the five company houses, has almost completed his work.

Joe G. Kelly, Harry Nelson and Victor Swanson are working on a drill for the Helmer Exploration Co.

J. C. Clausen and Fred Aspholm, of Brainerd, are working in the crew of carpenters finishing the company houses.

Eric Olson, of Aitkin, is working as carpenter for the company.

Joe Dailey, of Aitkin, is working for L. W. Thabes.

Fred Eimer and three men are logging near town. Mr. Eimer will put up a saw mill in the spring.

Howard W. Fitch, time keeper at the mine, is stopping at the Cuyuna
hotel.

Ezra Peltier completed his work building chimneys for the company and returned to his home in Aitkin.

Frank Engman, formerly deputy sheriff of Crow Wing county, is the carpenter foreman in charge of the houses being erected by the Rogers-Brown Ore Co. Mr. Engman is doing work and the houses are progressing rapidly in spite of the bad weather.

They are well built throughout and a credit to the town and the company.

Albert Johnson, of Ft. Ripley, was at the Cuyuna hotel Jan. 28.

Peter Hanson is working for the Helmer Exploration Co. on drill No. 1.

Miss Mary Burdorf and Miss Bertna
Bencke are employed at the Cuyuna
hotel.

The Coyote to the Rescue

For the first time in all history, it is believed, the coyote who serenades the moon to a distraction of weirdness has a defender. The fruit growers of the northwest find the jack rabbit a multiplying enemy. His appetite for the bark of young fruit trees concerns
them greatly. They reflect that the hunted and all but exterminated coyote is the only thing on earth that can
and does run down a jack rabbit, and
so they propose laws ordering man's hands to no longer be raised against
the coyote.

'Tis an ill cook cannot lick his own fingers.—Shakespeare.

or Any kind of Furniture

That you wish to keep in good condition, write us for a bottle of our famous piano polish. From the experience of a lifetime in the piano business, we have finally evolved a polish that stands unrivaled in a class by itself.

It restores old surfaces and preserves the new. It cleans and disinfects, brings out the natural beauty of the wood and at the same time imparts a deep rich lustre, with the least effort.

This polish does not smear, streak or collect dust. The daily use of a little polish on the dust cloth is strongly recommended. This polish is used by us on our musical instruments and has been used by us for years. We con-

killed on the premises; he wanted the
officer to take the dog away and shoot
it. He had the dog tied with a piece
of clothes line, which the officer untied
and then started off with the dog. After he had gone a little ways he felt something snap at his overcoat and
looking down saw that the dog was
snapping at it and foaming at the mouth. Mr. Britton stepped quickly
back out of reach and shot the dog,
killing it instantly. He will look carefully hereafter at any dogs he is asked
to kill and keep out of their reach if
they act the least unnatural.

One of the pleasantest social events
of the season was the dancing party
given at Elks' hall Friday evening.
The hosts were Messrs. Alger Ander-
son, Clarence Brown, Harry Carlson,
Earl Entrikey, Jay Long, Harry Mur-
phy, Raymond Rose and James Temple-
ton, eight of the leading young gentle-
men of the younger set of Brainerd society young people. The hall was very handsomely decorated, the party scheme
was a combination of Lincoln's birthday and St. Valentine's day, the main hall being decorated in the national
colors. Red, white and blue streamers
almost formed a canopy of the entire
ceiling, while the place was lighted
with tri-colored Chinese lanterns, making a very pretty effect. The parlor
was decorated in red hearts, symbolic
of St. Valentine, and the handsome
frappe booth was decorated in the same
way. The booth was presided over by Misses Evelyn Storm and Minnie Er-
win. Mesdames John Carlson, Chas.
Rose, W. E. Entrikey, Wm. Brown
and Thomas Templeton, mothers of
five of the hosts, were the matrons of
the occasion. Over 200 young people
enjoyed themselves till the morning
hours dancing to the music of Ousdahl's
orchestra.

CUYUNA NEWS

The town of Cuyuna as laid out by
T. R. Foley is situated in nw 1/4 of Section 31, Township 47, Range 28

ner of town. There are eight blocks
in the plat. The streets running east
and west are named respectively:
North, Foley, Main, Kruse and South.
The avenues run north and south and

center of town, being lot 17, block 3
and situated on the corner of Main

The Cuyuna hotel was opened to the public the middle of January and is
meeting with great favor and increas-

man or visitor will be suited. Mr.
Oltis has a team and driver on hand so
that travelers can easily make Brainerd,
Deerwood or Aitkin. The second
grand opening will be a grand affair
and will occur when the plastering and
inside painting are completed. This will eclipse anything previously attempted on the range and should be attended by every one who has an interest in the range.

A party of Aitkin people visited the
range and stopped at the Cuyuna hotel

The "Aitkin Age" of Feb. 9, has a
good writeup of the town of Cuyuna.

Arrangements will be made to haul
the children of town to school at Deer-
wood until the Cuyuna school house
can be erected.

ern Massaba range, has been employed
as pipeman by the mining company.

Peter Larson is conducting a board-
ing house in the northeast end of town.
Several of the company teamsters and
carpenters are boarding there.

There are two drills of the Helmer
Exploration Co. working about a quarter of a mile from the townsites.

Mr. Richards, the master mechanic
at the mine, and family will soon remove to the Cuyuna hotel and stop
there until their home is ready for occupancy.

The Coyote to the Rescue

For the first time in all history, it is believed, the coyote who serenades the
moon to a distraction of weirdness has
a defender. The fruit growers of the northwest find the jack rabbit a multiplying enemy. His appetite for the
bark of young fruit trees concerns
them greatly. They reflect that the hunted and all but exterminated coy-
ote is the only thing on earth that can
and does run down a jack rabbit, and
so they propose laws ordering man's
hands to no longer be raised against
the coyote.

DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED HERE

Lincoln's Birthday Centenary Observed in Brainerd by Various Organizations

SCHOOLS AND SHOPS CLOSED

Protest Meeting Held by Labor Because of Decision Against Labor Leaders

The centenary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln was fittingly observed in Brainerd by various organizations. The work at the Northern Pacific shops was suspended, banks were closed and the schools of the city were given a half holiday in honor of the day. In the evening there were several gatherings in celebration of the day. The most important, in the matter of numbers, was the protest meeting held in Gardner's hall under the auspices of the Trades and Labor assembly to make a formal expression of the views of organized labor on the recent contempt decision against the officers of the national federation of labor. The meeting was well advertised and a good crowd attended. Thomas Van Lear, of Minneapolis, was the principal speaker and Rev. J. R. Alten, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church spoke on "Co-operation."

The meeting was called to order by the president of the Brainerd Trades and Labor Assembly.

Those who came early were well entertained by the Juvenile band which was secured for that occasion. The band rendered several selections and deserve great credit for their work.

After the meeting was called to order Mr. Henning presented the case in hand to the audience—the convicting of Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison. As presented by Mr. Henning this conviction rose from a dispute which the Buck Stove and Range people had with their metal polishers, platers and buffers. He told the audience the meeting was called to protest against the decision of Judge Wright, of the District of Columbia.

After the musical selections following upon the introductory remarks the Rev. J. R. Alten was presented by the chairman. He spoke rather shortly upon the subject of Co-operation. He showed how our present civilization and the superior condition of the masses was the result of co-operation.

The program was strictly followed and after the musical number Mr. Van Lear was introduced. If anyone expected from him a rambling radical discussion he was doomed to disappointment. Mr. Van Lear stated the meeting was not called because of sympathy, but to demand the rights which we have guaranteed us by the constitution of the United States. He then went on with his subject, "Judge Made Laws." Taking up Judge Wright's decision in re Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, he dealt with each paragraph of the decision showing that there was no need for making use of the injunction and prosecuting these men under that, as the case could be dealt with under the common law but this would give these men the opportunity of calling for a jury trial. He also mentioned the treatment received by these three men, at the hands of that judge. While Mr. Van Lear spoke very forcibly it can hardly be said that he was very radical. He is afire with his subject, and so would we be under similar circumstances. When this speaker closed the resolutions were presented and adopted almost unanimously.

The program throughout was excellent. The solos and the music by the quartette was very good. The people applauding very energetically, but no encores were permitted as the program was in itself long. There was one exception made, which was at the end of the evening. Special mention of the impersonation by Waldron Holder which was excellent, should be made.

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church observed the day by a memorial service held at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Robertson, which was well attended and much enjoyed.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

The Majestic Stock Company played "Dick's Honeymoon" to a good sized audience at the matinee performance yesterday afternoon. The members of the company are very clever at comedy work and were given generous applause. They also put on the same play to a fair sized house last evening, especially considering the large number of other attractions. This afternoon they put on "Pards" as a matinee number and tonight will play "Dick's Honeymoon" for the last time. On Monday evening the company will render "The Governor's Wife," an adaptation of an English play.

MAKES STOMACH MISERY VANISH

Stops Fermentation and Relieves Dyspepsia in Five Minutes

END ALL THIS DISTRESS

The Most Obstinate Cases of Indigestion will Find a Prompt Cure

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let you eat one 22-grain triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is food fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take some Diapiesin.

VIOLATING GAME LAWS

That is the Charge Upon Which C. P. Cox, a Well Known Traveling Man Was Acquitted Today

C. P. Cox, traveling salesman for the Green-DeLaitre Grocery company, and a resident of this city, was tried in the municipal court this morning on the charge of shipping a deer on another man's license. According to the testimony of the witnesses for the state Cox approached a man named Murphy, while coming from Blackduck to Brainerd on the train and asked for one of his unused hunter's shipping tags to use in shipping a deer from Brainerd to Minneapolis, representing that he wished to present it to friends there. Murphy consented and they went to the express office together and shipped the animal. At Minneapolis the deer, together with one shot at Blackduck by Murphy, was seized by the game wardens. Mr. Cox, according to the testimony of one of the express officials when asked to produce the license under which the deer was shot said that his father had it. The entire forenoon was taken up with the state's side of the case, the line of defense, to judge from the cross examination of the witnesses, is that Cox gave the deer to Murphy. The case was taken up again at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The defense proved by A. G. Schnell, the Northern Express agent at this point that he told the parties in the express office that Cox could not ship the deer, that it had to be shipped in the name of Murphy and that it was so done.

In summing up the case Judge Allbright stated that it did not make any difference whether or not Cox owned the deer that if it was shipped by Murphy, and the tag was the best evidence as to that, then Cox could not be held, and dismissed the case.

A Pleasant Shower

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lawson gave a very pleasant shower last night, at the home of Mrs. Lawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Brose, 1919 S. E. Oak St. The shower was a complete surprise to the young couple who were out spending the evening at the home of a friend playing 50., when at eight o'clock word was sent them that a friend wished to see them and upon arriving home, they were surprised to find the house filled with a large number of guests. The evening was a pleasant one, Messrs. S. Brose, C. Roberts and H. Bently furnished music for the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, all of which were very much appreciated by them. The many friends upon leaving wished them good luck.

TAFT GUEST AT CREOLE BANQUET

Southern Dishes Served to the President Elect.

DELIVERS A BRIEF ADDRESS

Noted Ohioan Talks of His Desire as Chief Executive to Represent the Whole Nation and Repeats the Hope That the Panama Canal Will Be Completed Within His Administration—Makes Speech to Negroes.

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—President Elect Taft has breathed the distinctive atmosphere of New Orleans hospitality. His morning was devoted to the negro race, his afternoon to leisure and recreation, with the tension of entertainment as light as possible, but with the shades of evening there gathered about him the general host, multiplied by eminence, rank and distinction.

The entertainment feature at night was a Creole banquet, where the fattened oysters, the savoriness of the cuisine, with its hundreds of years of perfection and reputation, blended with honied words of compliment and oration, music and floral tribute into a scene of animation and vivacity, tempered with respect and dignity. Mr. Taft was toasted by the governor, the mayor, by citizens of prominence and speakers of reputation. An invocation was pronounced by Cardinal Gibbons, who is in the city visiting his brother. Mr. Taft responded in the spirit of the occasion. He talked of his desire as chief executive to represent the whole nation, of his intention to make the representatives of the administration in the South represent the best element of the communities in which they lived; of his recent visit to the Isthmus of Panama, with a repetition of his hope for the completion of the canal within his administration.

The dinner was given in the newly decorated banquet hall of the Grunewald hotel, where Mr. Taft is quartered.

Scene Was a Brilliant One.

A thousand citizens paid the assessment of $25 each for places at the board and considerably over half of these were present, and from the early beginning until the late ending, the scene was one of brilliance and animation. The spacious corridors of the hotel presented a brilliant scene, being the assembling place of the many who could not attend the dinner. Handsomely gowned women with their escorts thronged the corridors and Mr. Taft graciously consented to an informal reception, which gratified the desire of hundreds to meet him personally.

Although conferences during the day were had between Mr. Taft and Mr. Hitchcock, his postmaster general, and Treasurer Upham of the national committee, nothing definite was obtainable regarding the undecided places in the cabinet. Mr. Hitchcock furnished certain information desired by Mr. Taft but the attitude of the president elect to refrain from discussing what may be in his mind on this subject was not changed and no definite information was obtainable.

In his speech to the negroes who greeted him by thousands at the ball park, Mr. Taft reiterated his heretofore well defined principles regarding the development of the negro race and the settlement of the race question. He gave wholesome advice to the effect that the big question was to be solved by the effort of the individual rather than by any promulgation of a general principle. He wanted to be considered the president of the whole country, the president of every race in the country and expressed his sympathy with the black man for progress. This speech was delivered to an audience of negroes which filled the grand stand, bleachers and a goodly portion of the grounds of the local baseball park, and what he said was received with marked applause and approval.

CAPTURE TWO MURDERERS

Philippine Constables Still in Pursuit of Others.

Manila, Feb. 13.—After months of tracking through mountains and dense forests in the interior of the island of Negros, a force of constabulary has finally run down and captured two of the murderers of H. D. Everett, assistant director of the bureau of forestry of the Philippines, and T. R. Wakely, another government forester, who were treacherously killed by a band of natives while surveying and mapping the island last June.

As an example to other hill men in the island, the government has kept up a relentless pursuit of the bands since the day that the two Americans were murdered and after almost eight months of tracking the constabulary has succeeded in capturing two of the leaders. Pursuit will be continued until the entire band has been hunted down.

CLARK WINS MARATHON RACE

Finishes First Out of Field of Over a Hundred and Fifty Starters.

New York, Feb. 13.—Out of a field of 154 starters, James Clark of the Xavier Athletic club of this city won a Marathon race which began in the armory of the Thirteenth regiment, Brooklyn, and finished there after the runners had gone to Seagate, Coney Island, where the turning point was staked.

The full distance of the race was 26 miles, 385 yards and the winner's time was 2:46:52 3/4. James Crowley of the Irish-American Athletic club, who won the Yonkers Marathon last Thanksgiving day, was second, finishing about 500 yards behind the winner and fully half a mile ahead of Harry Jensen of the Pastime Athletic club who finished third.

Ten men out of the 154 starters negotiated the full course.

Several runners collapsed during the contest and Sylvester Vigilante, an eighteen-year-old boy, is in a precarious condition. Edward Hamel, another runner, fell completely exhausted near the finish and for some time his life was despaired of. Several other runners who broke down in the race were cared for by physicians.

WOULD FIGHT JIM JEFFRIES

Jack Johnson Willing to Meet the Big Californian.

Melbourne, Feb. 13.—"I am willing to fight James J. Jeffries, Tommy Burns or any other man alive, in England, America, Australia or any part of the civilized world where sufficient inducements are offered."

This was the farewell message of Jack Johnson, the champion heavy-weight pugilist, on the eve of his departure for Sydney to catch a steamer that will take him across the Pacific en route to the United States. A fight for the championship, however, must be deferred for some months, as it is Johnson's purpose first to fulfill a theatrical engagement in London and go on for a limited round bout before the National Sporting club in that city with Sam Langford. Johnson declared that he was out for business and barred nobody from seeking to take from him the honors he wrested from Tommy Burns at Sydney on Dec. 26, last. Johnson will leave Sydney on the steamer Makura which will sail next Monday for Vancouver, at which place she is due about March 12. From Vancouver Johnson will proceed to Galveston, Tex., where he will spend a week with his parents.

DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED HERE

SCHOOLS AND SHOPS CLOSED

Protest Meeting Held by Labor Because of Decision Against Labor Leaders

The centenary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln was fittingly observed in Brainerd by various organizations. The work at the Northern Pacific shops was suspended, banks were closed and the schools of the city were given a half holiday in honor of the day. In the evening there were several gatherings in celebration of the day. The most important, in the matter of numbers was the protest meeting held in Gardner's hall under the auspices of the Trades and Labor assembly to make a formal expression of the views of organized labor on the recent contempt decision against the officers of the national federation of labor. The meeting was well advertised and a good crowd attended. Thomas Van Lear, of Minneapolis, was the principal speaker and Rev. J. R. Alten, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church spoke on "Co-operation."

The meeting was called to order by the president of the Brainerd Trades and Labor Assembly.

Those who came early were entertained by the Juvenile band which was secured for that occasion. The band rendered several selections and deserve great credit for their work.

After the meeting was called to order Mr. Henning presented the case in hand to the audience—the convicting of Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison. As presented by Mr. Henning this conviction rose from a dispute which the Buck Stove and Range people had with their metal polishers, platers and buffers. He told the audience the meeting was called to protest against the decision of Judge Wright, of the District of Columbia.

After the musical selections following upon the introductory remarks the Rev. J. R. Alten was presented by the chairman. He spoke rather shortly upon the subject of Co-operation. He showed how our present civilization and the superior condition of the masses was the result of co-operation.

The program was strictly followed and after the musical number Mr. Van Lear was introduced. If anyone expected from him a rambling radical discussion he was doomed to disappointment. Mr. Van Lear stated the meeting was not called because of sympathy, but to demand the rights which we have guaranteed us by the constitution of the United States. He then went on with his subject, "Judge Made Laws."

Taking up Judge Wright's decision in re Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, he dealt with each paragraph of the decision showing that there was no need for making use of the injunction and prosecuting these men under that, as the case could be dealt with under the common law but this would give these men the opportunity of calling for a jury trial. He also mentioned the treatment received by these three men, at the hands of that judge. While Mr. Van Lear spoke very forcibly it can hardly be said that he was very radical. He is afire with his subject, and so would we be under similar circumstances. When this speaker closed the resolutions were presented and adopted almost unanimously.

The program throughout was excellent. The solos and the music by the quartette was very good. The people applauding very energetically, but no encores were permitted as the program was in itself long. There was one exception made, which was at the end of the evening. Special mention of the impersonation by Waldron Holder which was excellent, should be made.

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church observed the day by a memorial service held at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Robertson, which was well attended and much enjoyed.

The Majestic Stock Company played "Dick's Honeymoon" to a good sized audience at the matinee performance yesterday afternoon. The members of the company are very clever at comedy work and were given generous applause. This afternoon they put on "Pards" as a matinee number and tonight will play "Dick's Honeymoon" for the last time. On Monday evening the company will render "The Governor's Wife," an adaptation of an English play.

MAKES STOMACH MISERY VANISH

Stops Fermentation and Relieves Dyspepsia in Five Minutes

END ALL THIS DISTRESS

The Most Obstinate Cases of Indigestion will Find a Prompt Cure

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let you eat one 22-grain triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is food fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take some Diapiesin.

VIOLATING GAME LAWS

C. P. Cox, traveling salesman for the Green-DeLaitre Grocery company, and a resident of this city, was tried in the municipal court this morning on the charge of shipping a deer on another man's license. According to the testimony of the witnesses for the state Cox approached a man named Murphy, while coming from Blackduck to Brainerd on the train and asked for one of his unused hunter's shipping tags to use in shipping a deer from Brainerd to Minneapolis, representing that he wished to present it to friends there. Murphy consented and they went to the express office together and shipped the animal. At Minneapolis the deer, together with one shot at Blackduck by Murphy, was seized by the game wardens. Mr. Cox, according to the testimony of one of the express officials when asked to produce the license under which the deer was shot said that his father had it. The entire forenoon was taken up with the state's side of the case, the line of defense, to judge from the cross examination of the witnesses, is that Cox gave the deer to Murphy. The case was taken up again at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The defense proved by A. G. Schnell, the Northern Express agent at this point that he told the parties in the express office that Cox could not ship the deer, that it had to be shipped in the name of Murphy and that it was so done.

In summing up the case Judge Albright stated that it did not make any difference whether or not Cox owned the deer that if it was shipped by Murphy, and the tag was the best evidence as to that, then Cox could not be held, and dismissed the case.

TAFT GUEST AT CREOLE BANQUET

Southern Dishes Served to the President Elect.

DELIVERS A BRIEF ADDRESS

Noted Ohioan Talks of His Desire as Chief Executive to Represent the Whole Nation and Repeats the Hope That the Panama Canal Will Be Completed Within His Administration—Makes Speech to Negroes.

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—President Elect Taft has breathed the distinctive atmosphere of New Orleans hospitality. His morning was devoted to the negro race, his afternoon to leisure and recreation, with the tension of entertainment as light as possible, but with the shades of evening there gathered about him the general host, multiplied by eminence, rank and distinction.

The entertainment feature at night was a Creole banquet, where the fattened oysters, the savoriness of the cuisine, with its hundreds of years of perfection and reputation, blended with honied words of compliment and oration, music and floral tribute into a scene of animation and vivacity, tempered with respect and dignity. Mr. Taft was toasted by the governor, the mayor, by citizens of prominence and speakers of reputation. An invocation was pronounced by Cardinal Gibbons, who is in the city visiting his brother. Mr. Taft responded in the spirit of the occasion. He talked of his desire as chief executive to represent the whole nation, of his intention to make the representatives of the administration in the South represent the best element of the communities in which they lived; of his recent visit to the Isthmus of Panama, with a repetition of his hope for the completion of the canal within his administration.

The dinner was given in the newly decorated banquet hall of the Grunewald hotel, where Mr. Taft is quartered.

Scene Was a Brilliant One.

A thousand citizens paid the assessment of $25 each for places at the board and considerably over half of these were present, and from the early beginning until the late ending, the scene was one of brilliance and animation. The spacious corridors of the hotel presented a brilliant scene, being the assembling place of the many who could not attend the dinner. Handsomely gowned women with their escorts thronged the corridors and Mr. Taft graciously consented to an informal reception, which gratified the desire of hundreds to meet him personally.

Although conferences during the day were had between Mr. Taft and Mr. Hitchcock, his postmaster general, and Treasurer Upham of the national committee, nothing definite was obtainable regarding the undecided places in the cabinet. Mr. Hitchcock furnished certain information desired by Mr. Taft but the attitude of the president elect to refrain from discussing what may be in his mind on this subject was not changed and no definite information was obtainable.

In his speech to the negroes who greeted him by thousands at the ball park, Mr. Taft reiterated his heretofore well defined principles regarding the development of the negro race and the settlement of the race question. He gave wholesome advice to the effect that the big question was to be solved by the effort of the individual rather than by any promulgation of a general principle. He wanted to be considered the president of the whole country, the president of every race in the country and expressed his sympathy with the black man for progress. This speech was delivered to an audience of negroes which filled the grand stand, bleachers and a goodly portion of the grounds of the local baseball park, and what he said was received with marked applause and approval.

Carnegie Discusses the Tariff.

New York, Feb. 13.—Andrew Carnegie declared that congress is incapable of fixing a just tariff schedule and that a permanent bi-partisan commission of experts is the only solution of the ever troublesome tariff problem. Mr. Carnegie urged that all manufacturers of the country attend the national tariff commission convention, which assemblies at Indianapolis on Feb. 16.

Slashed by Highwaymen.

St. Paul, Feb. 13.—Thomas Cusick, twenty-eight years of age, was slashed about the face in an attempt at highway robbery at Albemarle and Front streets. Nineteen stitches were taken in the cuts in his face by the police surgeon, Dr. John Kelly. HUMORIST FOR GIANTS.

Arrie Latham Engaged to Amuse Baseball Fans From Coaching Line.

Manager John McGraw has adopted an innovation in baseball which will appeal to fandom throughout the National league circuit and probably prevent Merkle and others from running to the clubhouse before they "touch second." The innovation is the signing of the once famous player Arrie Latham as coach for the base runners. Fans of the eighties and nineties will remember Latham as Cincinnati's third baseman and humorist. Both in the playing position and in the coach's box Latham wore a red necktie, with his shirt collar standing up, in addition to the other parts of his uniform and spiked shoes. His flow of humor in coaching and "kidding" brought much enjoyment to spectators of the Cincinnati club's games, and the Reds kept Latham a long while after he deteriorated as a player because of his drawing power as a comedian and humorist.

Latham will don the uniform of the Giants and take his place in the coach's box while the Giants are at bat and between coaching the base runners and batsmen and "getting the goat" of the opposing pitchers will furnish an interesting sidelight to the New York games.

NEW IDEAS FOR COLLEGE LIFE

President Garfield Will Dine at Same Table as Students.

President Harry A. Garfield, recently installed head of Williams college, and President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton announced at the sixtieth annual dinner of Williams college, held at Delmonico's in New York city the other night, several policies calculated to make a stir in college life.

President Garfield told the 250 Williams alumni at the tables that he intended to eat his meals among the students of the college in the new dining hall which is being completed in the new dormitory in the Berkshire quadrangle. He added that he was going to make as many members of the Williams faculty as he could dine there also.

"We won't dine at a high table apart, either," he added, while the diners cheered. "We'll dine at the same table as the students."

President Wilson, who followed President Garfield, said that he agreed with President Garfield, but that the latter hadn't, in his opinion, said enough.

"Our problem is not merely to help the students to adjust themselves to world life," he said. "Our problem is to make them as unlike their fathers as we can. Their fathers are specialized persons. The problem of the college faculty is to generalize the younger generation all over again."

"Take Abraham Lincoln, for example. He couldn't have been born in the present city of New York. He would have fought New York. Any one who thinks New York today doesn't think American. This city doesn't make generalized Americans, and that is just the kind of Americans that the American universities must make. Our colleges are not doing this today."

"Colleges must not be mere country clubs in which to breed up a leisure class. I don't blame the leisure classes for doing wrong. If I belonged to a leisure class I would try to see how near I could come to getting into jail. College must make students of its young men. I don't give a damn if they study. But they mustn't be idle."

Both President Garfield's and President Wilson's remarks were frequently interrupted by applause and cheers.

A Fire Fighter's Astounding Story

OF THE UNPARALLELED MERITS OF "BLOODINE"

HARRY A. GLAZIER
A Prominent Fireman of Malden, Mass.

Mar. 28th, 1904.

Last winter I had a severe cold and it settled on my kidneys, causing the most excruciating pain almost every time I attempted to move. I had tried everything imaginable to get relief with no success, until I was advised to try "Bloodine," which to my great surprise gave me relief almost from the first dose and before I had taken one bottle I was completely cured. "Bloodine" is a wonderful, vitalizing tonic. If the blood is impure, complexion bad, appetite lost, strength gone, and the whole system is upset by an accumulation of humors, it is time to try "Bloodine" today.

THE BLOODINE CO., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:—I received one of your books, yesterday. I have been a great sufferer for thirty-three weeks, passing bloody water, have been to the hospital, have had four different doctors. They called it most everything, and I got no better. Please send me a sample bottle of your Bloodine for which I enclose ten cents in stamps to pay for same. If it will do me any good I will take it the rest of my life.

GREATEST OF HEROES

Count Leo Tolstoy's Estimate of Abraham Lincoln.

BIGGER THAN HIS COUNTRY.

Greater Than All the Presidents Together, a Christ in Miniature, Says Famous Russian—Wonderful Reverence Even Among Barbarians.

Visiting Count Leo Tolstoy in Yasnaya with the intention of getting him to write an article on Abraham Lincoln, I unfortunately found him not well enough to yield to my request. However, he was willing to give me his opinion of the great American statesman, and this is what he told me:

"Of all the great national heroes and statesmen of history Lincoln is the only real giant. Alexander, Frederick the Great, Caesar, Napoleon, Gladstone and even Washington stand in greatness of character, in depth of feeling and in a certain moral power far behind Lincoln. Lincoln was a man of whom a nation has a right to be proud. He was a Christ in miniature, a saint of humanity, whose name will live thousands of years in the legends of future generations. We are still too near to his greatness and so can hardly appreciate his divine power, but after a few centuries more our posterity will find him considerably bigger than we do. His genius is still too strong and too powerful for the common understanding, just as the sun is too hot when its light beams directly on us."

"If one would know the greatness of Lincoln one should listen to the stories which are told about him in other parts of the world. I have been in wild places where one hears the name of America uttered with such mystery as if it were some heaven or hell. I have heard various tribes of barbarians discussing the new world, but I heard this only in connection with the name of Lincoln. Lincoln as the wonderful hero of America is known by the most primitive nations of Asia. This may be illustrated through the following incident:

"Once while traveling in the Caucasus I happened to be the guest of a Caucasian chief of the Circassians, who, living far away from civilized life in the mountains, had but a fragmentary and childish comprehension of the world and its history. The fingers of civilization had never reached him, nor his tribe, and all life beyond his native valleys was a dark mystery. Being a Mussulman, he was naturally opposed to all ideas of progress and education."

"I was received with the usual oriental hospitality and after our meal was asked to sit around me on the floor and gaze at me as if hungering for knowledge. I spoke at first of our wars and of their victories; then I spoke of the foreign rulers and of some of the greatest military leaders. My talk seemed to impress them deeply. The story of Napoleon was so interesting to them that I had to tell them every detail—as, for instance, how his hands looked, how tall he was, who made his guns and pistols and the color of his horse. It was very difficult to satisfy them and to meet their point of view, but I did my best. When I declared that I had finished my talk my host, a gray bearded, tall, rose, lifted his hand and said very gravely:

"But you have not told us a syllable about the greatest general and greatest ruler of the world. We want to know something about him. He was a hero. He spoke with a voice of thunder. He laughed like the sunrise, and his deeds were strong as the rock and as sweet as the fragrance of roses. The angels appeared to his mother and predicted that the son whom she would conceive would become the greatest of the stars had ever seen. He was so great that he even forgave the crimes of his greatest enemies and shook brotherly hands with those who had plotted against his life. His name was Lincoln and the country in which he lived is called America, which is so far away that if a youth should journey to reach it he would be an old man when he arrived. Tell us of that man." Tell us, please, and we will present you with the best horse of our stock!" shouted the others.

"I looked at them and saw their faces all aglow, while their eyes were burning. I saw that those rude barbarians were really interested in a man whose name and deeds had already become a legend. I told them of Lincoln and his wisdom, of his home life and youth. They asked me ten questions to one which I was able to answer. They wanted to know all about his habits, his influence upon the people and his physical strength. But they were very astonished to hear that Lincoln made a sorry figure on a horse and that he lived such a simple life.

"Tell us why he was killed," one of them said.

"I had to tell everything. After all my knowledge of Lincoln was exhausted they seemed to be satisfied. I can hardly forget the great enthusiasm which they expressed in their wild thanks and the desire to get a picture of the great American hero. I said that I probably could secure one from my friend in the nearest town, and this seemed to give them great pleasure."

"The next morning when I left the chief a wonderful Arabian horse was brought me as a present for my marvelous story, and our farewell was very impressive. One of the riders agreed to accompany me to the town and get the promised picture, which I was now bound to secure at any price. I was successful in getting a large photograph from my friend, and I handed it to the man with my greetings to his associates. It was interesting to witness the gravity of his face and the trembling of his hands when he received my present. He gazed for several minutes silently, like one in a reverent prayer. His eyes filled with tears. He was deeply touched, and I asked him why he became so sad. After pondering my question for a few moments he replied:

"I am sad because I feel sorry that he had to die by the hand of a villain. Don't you find, judging from his picture, that his eyes are full of tears and that his lips are sad with a secret sorrow?"

RAILWAY THEATER CAR

Vaudeville Show to Be Given as Train Speeds.

CHANGE OF BILL EACH DAY.

Experiment to Be Made With Combination Dining and Theater Car Actors Going From City to City to Give Performance—Seats For Sixty-five.

"Last call for the theater car."

If a scheme, new to the United States, now under way goes through, this will be a cry heard in railway stations at no distant day. Chismore H. Packard of New York city is the man with the idea. He proposes to furnish vaudeville while the train is whirling along. Packard has taken out half a dozen patents covering various phases of his scheme.

He has thought out a way to convert the dining car into the theater. He may also build new cars. A company is being organized to take up the project, which will require about $100,000 to start.

"The idea came to me long ago that people who travel are wholly lacking in real entertainment," said Packard. "I don't claim that particular idea was original. I guess every one who has done any traveling has thought the same thing. Reading is all right, of course, but people get tired of that. They tire of watching the scenery. They tire of talking."

"The more I thought about it the more I became convinced that there ought to be some way of getting around the matter. Build a theater car, I said to myself. I have spent lots of sleepless nights pondering over it and recently hit upon what I consider a practical scheme."

"My idea is to build a car patterned along the general lines of the dining car. The kitchen will be the same. All the room given to the kitchen is needed. My plan takes in the rest of the car. I propose to build floors that will rise in sections above the regular flooring of the car when they are needed. They will be regulated by machinery and when not elevated will lie close to the bottom flooring, so there will be a level stretch."

"The portions of the floor to be raised will be in three divisions, one rising higher than the one before it. That you see, will make three distinct tiers and give everybody a chance to see the stage. When I say stage I mean just a little platform not over a foot and a half from the floor and only wide enough for two performers. Our theatrical productions will never take in more than two performers."

"The regular seats used in the dining car will be used for the theater seats. The tables will be constructed so they may be converted into seats by turning a lever. Thus sixty-five persons may be seated. It will cost about $30,000 to build the sort of car I have in mind. I think the railroad people will take to the idea because I will not charge them anything to use the car for dining purposes. I will supply the waiters, and they will act as ushers, ticket takers and property men for the theater."

"It will be my aim to have only well known performers appear. A performer finishing an engagement in New York, we will say, is to go to Chicago, there to fill an engagement. I will book him or her to appear in my theater car on the trip. I will pay just a little for the one day's appearance or perhaps merely furnish the actor's transportation."

"Well known actors are always going and coming. There will be a change of bill each day. Besides these performers, there will be moving pictures. I expect to have at least two performers and then the pictures. I will have a photograph on hand for talking pictures."

OF Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it be believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of a woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which it is recommended.

"Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

WILD CATTLE IN NEW ENGLAND

Farmers Trap Steers Roaming About a Mountain in Massachusetts.

Having set a trap for wild steers on Weston mountain, in Dalton, Mass., Robert Colt and George Crozier captured three and brought them down the mountain to their farm.

A year ago last fall when a herd of young cattle was found on the range all summer half a dozen or more escaped, and all efforts to capture them were unavailing. They eventually became as wild as the deer with which they traveled about the mountain all summer and fall.

Finally Colt and Crozier built an enclosure, in which they placed hay and corn. A drop gate was operated by a wire a quarter of a mile away. Colt and Crozier ascended the mountain, sprung the trap and caught three steers. They hope to capture others soon.

"Billy Possum" Post Card Latest Fad.

The "Billy Possum" idea will not be allowed to rest with the manufacture of a toy in the shape of the Taft-Georgia table delicacy. A characteristic picture of "Billy" will be put on the market in the shape of post cards, blotters and other office supplies. The picture shows "Billy" in the attitude of enjoying a good digestion, probably the aftermath of a meal on a nice fat hen. A smile of eminent satisfaction glimmers his demure face, and a single look at him is enough to put an entire office force in good humor for the entire day.

"Wait a moment," he interrupted after I had talked a few minutes. "I want all my neighbors and my sons to listen to you. I will call them immediately."

"He soon returned with a score of wild looking riders and asked me politely to continue. It was indeed a solemn moment when those sons of the wilderness sat around me on the floor and gazed at me as if hungering for knowledge. He has thought out a way to convert the dining car into the theater. He may also build new cars. A company is being organized to take up the project, which will require about $100,000 to start.

"The idea came to me long ago that people who travel are wholly lacking in real entertainment," said Packard. "I don't claim that particular idea was original. I guess every one who has done any traveling has thought the same thing. Reading is all right, of course, but people get tired of that. They tire of watching the scenery. They tire of talking.

"The more I thought about it the more I became convinced that there ought to be some way of getting around the matter. Build a theater car, I said to myself. I have spent lots of sleepless nights pondering over it and recently hit upon what I consider a practical scheme.

"My idea is to build a car patterned along the general lines of the dining car. The kitchen will be the same. All the room given to the kitchen is needed. My plan takes in the rest of the car. I propose to build floors that will rise in sections above the regular flooring of the car when they are needed. They will be regulated by machinery and when not elevated will lie close to the bottom flooring, so there will be a level stretch.

"The portions of the floor to be raised will be in three divisions, one rising higher than the one before it. That you see, will make three distinct tiers and give everybody a chance to see the stage. When I say stage I mean just a little platform not over a foot and a half from the floor and only wide enough for two performers. Our theatrical productions will never take in more than two performers.

"The regular seats used in the dining car will be used for the theater seats. The tables will be constructed so they may be converted into seats by turning a lever. Thus sixty-five persons may be seated. It will cost about $30,000 to build the sort of car I have in mind. I think the railroad people will take to the idea because I will not charge them anything to use the car for dining purposes. I will supply the waiters, and they will act as ushers, ticket takers and property men for the theater.

"It will be my aim to have only well known performers appear. A performer finishing an engagement in New York, we will say, is to go to Chicago, there to fill an engagement. I will book him or her to appear in my theater car on the trip. I will pay just a little for the one day's appearance or perhaps merely furnish the actor's transportation.

"Well known actors are always going and coming. There will be a change of bill each day. Besides these performers, there will be moving pictures. I expect to have at least two performers and then the pictures. I will have a phonograph on hand for talking pictures."

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it be believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, and its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of a woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through the leading and most reputable of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WILD CATTLE IN NEW ENGLAND

Farmers Trap Steers Roaming About a Mountain in Massachusetts.

Having set a trap for wild steers on Weston mountain, in Dalton, Mass., Robert Colt and George Crozier captured three and brought them down the mountain to their farm.

A year ago last fall when a herd of young cattle was being rounded up after being out on the range all summer half a dozen or more escaped, and all efforts to capture them were unavailing. They eventually became as wild as the deer with which they traveled about the mountain all summer and fall.

Finally Colt and Crozier built an enclosure, in which they placed hay and corn. A drop gate was operated by a wire a quarter of a mile away. Colt and Crozier ascended the mountain, sprung the trap and caught three steers. They hope to capture others soon.

"Billy Possum" Post Card Latest Fad.

The "Billy Possum" idea will not be allowed to rest with the manufacture of a toy in the shape of the Taft-Georgia table delicacy. A characteristic picture of "Billy" will be put on the market in the shape of post cards, blotters and other office supplies. The picture shows "Billy" in the attitude of enjoying a good digestion, probably the aftermath of a meal on a nice fat hen. A smile of eminent satisfaction glimmers his demure face, and a single look at him is enough to put an entire office force in good humor for the entire day.
